GITTINS BILLS VOTE TODAY

MEASURES FOR RELIEF OF RACING EXPECTED TO COME UP FOR ACTION.

Enemies of Sport Go to Ridiculous Lengths in Circulating Reports as to Probable Effect of Proposed Legislation at Albany.

New York, June 26.—Senator Gittins' bills amending the so-called directors' liability law and defining bookmaking are expected to come up in the Senate for a vote.

A member of the Jockey Club, after reviewing the criticism passed on the bills by many of the enemies of racing, said:

"Former Senator Agnew, judging by his comments on Senator Gittins' bills, seems to fear that if the bills are passed that faro, roulette and other methods of gambling will be indulged in on the tracks. To relieve any such apprehension on the former senator's part, let me state that no gambling will take place on the race courses in this state. At no time on the race tracks under the Jurisdiction of the Jockey Club, even when the widest latitude was permitted regarding betting, was faro or roulette played. Needless to say that if the directors of race tracks would not permit such things in the past they certainly will not in the future. So Agnew is conjuring a needless nightmare.

"All the racing men ask is a square deal. It is mit such things in the past they certainly will not in the future. So Agnew is conjuring a needless night-mare.

"All the racing men ask is a square deal. It is not fair—it is not even constitutional, well-known attorneys say—to hold a director or stockholder official of a race track liable for any violation of the law against gambling or bookmaking that may be committed on their grounds. Why, under the present law, if an official of a track ordered the arrest of a man found violating the law, he (the director), under the provisions of the statute, would be held equally guilty of the violation. Just think of that.

"It was this drastic law that caused the race tracks to close, because no stockholder wished to be amendable to arrest under its conditions. It has caused directors in many fair associations up the state to resign because of its far-reaching effect. Under its provisions former Governor White, a director in the state fair at Syracuse, is liable to arrest at any time. It was this knowledge that came to the farmers during the last six months that has caused their present demand for the repeal and amendment of the present demand for the repeal and amendment of the present demand for the reneal and amendment of the womership of fine race horses. Although he recently celebrated his eighty-fifth birth-day, General Sanford takes just as much interest in his horses as he did twenty-five years ago. He owns the greatest breeding farm in this state, and, despite the fact that racing since 1908 has had many hard raps, he has not sold any of his stallions or broodmares. In the event of the bills now before the Legislature being passed General Sanford has promised all of his mill hands a half hollday and a racing matinee at his Hurricana farm.

New York, June 26.—In anticloation of the passence of the resire till.

New York, June 26.—In anticipation of the passage of the racing bills now before the Legislature at Albany, the horses of Harry Payne Whitney and James R. Keene are being prepared by trainer James Rowe for racing at Saratoga. The Whitney and the Icene horses in trainer Rowe's charge have not raced this summer. It has been a peculiar twist of fortune that has brought about the amalgamation of the Whitney and Keene horses under one trainer. While the interest of both strings will be kept separate and the horses will race independently. Rowe will have charge of both sets. When one recalls the former bitter financial and turf rivalry of the late W. C. Whitney and James R. Keene, it seems rather singular that Harry Payne Whitney and James R. Keene should now have their horses in the care of the same trainer.

should now have their horses in the care of the same trainer.

Mr. Whitney will have twenty head of horses and Mr. Keene a similar number for the meeting at Saratoga. Since trainer Rowe returned from his trip to England and France he has spent considerable time at Brookdale, the breeding farm and training establishment maintained by Harry Payne Whitney in New Jersey, dividing his time between Brookdale and Sheepshead Bay. In the event of the passage of the Gittins' bills at Albany in the near future, the Whitney horses will be shipped to Long Island so that Rowe may have both strings under his constant supervision.

RICHEST RACE IN THE WORLD IS RUN.

As d'Atout Is Winner and Frank J. Gould's Combourg Is Second-Latter Gets Bad Deal.

Paris, France, June 26.—The Grand Prix de Paris, the blue ribbon event of the French turf, was won yesterday by Marquis de Ganay's black colt As d'Atout, by MacDonald II.—Anastasie. Frank J. Gould's bay colt Combourg was second, close up, and Michel Ephrussi's English horse Matchless a bad third. Yvette, owned by Mason Carnes, a New Yorker who resides in Paris, also ran.

President Fallieres of the republic, accompanied by the members of his cabinet, attended, as did many diplomats and a great gathering of society people as well as a host of Americans who had come to Longchamps from the coronation. The race proved a spirited contest between As d'Atout and the Gould horse. Both horses were at long odds, the former at 16 to 1 and the latter at 15 to 1, but in the stretch they had the race to themselves. Coming to the finish the two raced head and head, but Combourg was in a bad position against the ropes and jockey Reiff, compelled to give way and forced to go to the outside, lost the race by a length. Three lengths separated the second and third horses. Reiff promptly filed a protest against the winner on the ground that the rider of As d'Atout had forced him to the ropes, but the stewards refused to sustain the objection.

to the ropes, but the stewards refused to sustain the objection.

The Prix de Paris is a three-year-old event at one mile and seven-eighths. The value of the stake this year was $70,200. Alcantara II., owned by Baron de Rothschild, which early in June won the French Derby, was a hot public favorite in the betting at 9 to 10. Alcantara II, had won the Derby from Frank J. Gould's Combourg by six lengths, eased up, and looked to have a splendid chance for another great victory today. At the start Alcantara II. came out of the field with a swinging stride, closely pressed by As d'Atout and Combourg. They maintained these positions into the final straightaway, when the favorite weakened, falling into the ruck. Half a dozen American jockeys rode in the race, including O'Neill, Reiff, O'Connor, Turner, Henry and Donolue.

including O'Neill, Reiff, O'Connor, Turner, Henry and Donohue.

Frank J. Gould was all smiles after the race, when he said: "I may not have won the Grand Prix. but from the performance of Combourg today I know that I own the best horse in the world. This satisfaction is worth more to me than the prize money in the Grand Prix. Though $60,000 is a large sum to pay for a horse, Combourg justified all my hopes and my confidence in the judgment of my racing manager, Fred Calhoun."

STATISTICS OF THE HAMILTON MEETING

The meeting of the Hamilton Jockey Club, which opened at Hamilton, Ont., June 17 and came to a close June 24, occupied the seven days allotted by Canadian law, during which fifty-seven races were run and $38,635 distributed in stakes and purses, entailing the excellent daily average distribution of $5,519.29. In this distribution sixty-five owners shared and the following thirty-three won $400 and over:

Cash Bonus to Be Granted to Keepers of Thoroughbred Stailions -Big Stables at Fort Erie.

Buffialo, N. Y., June 26.—The fourteen-car special that left Hamilton this morning arrived at Fort Erie this afternoon and brought many of the stables that will take part in the meeting of the Niagara Raeing Association which is scheduled to open Saturday. Included in the shipment were the big establishments of S. C. Hildreth, August Belmont and R. F. Carman.

A new three-quarter mile chute has been constructed at the Fort Erie track since last fall, which will eliminate starting on a turn in races at this distance. Superintendent Judd, who has been looking after Kenliworth, is at Fort Erie putting the track in shape. Many racing followers from New York returned to their homes at the close of the Hamilton meeting, but they will all be on hand for the Fort Erie opening.

Word has reached here from Ottawa that the Canadian government has decided on a yearly cash grant to keepers of thoroughbred sires. This is what the National Bureau of Breeding has been striving to bring about for nearly three years and as it identifies the federal government with the thoroughbred it will be a good thing for the horse. In a statement which will be published all over Canada, the government points out the need of thoroughbred blood and sets aside the sum of $250 for each stallion per year, from which it will be seen that while the legislatures in the United States are wreeking the thoroughbred industry, the Canadian government and Canadian Breeding Bureau are building it up and profiting by the experience gained at great expense by European powers.

WHITNEY MARES RETURNED TO BROOKDALE.

Lexington, Ky., June 26.—Johnny Miller left here yesterday for Brookdale Stud, Redbank, N. J., with three great thoroughbred mares and a suckling filly belonging to Harry Payne Whitney. They are Artful (winner of the Futurity, Brighton Handicap, etc.,) and her suckling by Broomstick; Handspun (dam of Tanya, Tangle, etc.), and Green Vell (sister to Burgomaster). These mares had been at August Belmont's Nursery Stud since April 11 and were all mated with Rock Sand, the "tripe crown" winner for which Mr. Belmont paid $125,000.

It is reported here that Harry Payne Whitney has purchased all the yearling thoroughbreds at 25 James R. Keene's Castleton Stud, and that it was 25 for this reason they were not shipped to England last week. Maj. Foxhall A. Daingerfield, Mr. Keene's Drother-in-law, and manager of Castleton Stud, said today that he had no information as to the authenticity of the report. "I have received no ap. advices from Mr. Keene relative to yearlings," said be, "since I was instructed last Wednesday to annul 0 the order for cars and to keep the yearlings at 0 Castleton."

HEAVY GOING AT LATONIA

CONTINUED RAINS LEAVE KENTON COUNTY TRACK IN BAD CONDITION.

Princess Callaway Shows Rare Mud Running Ability by Taking Feature Race in Canter-Bachelor Girl Beats Lady Lightning.

Cincinnati, O., June 26.—Disagreeable weather and a bad track detracted from the interest in today's racing at Latonia and accounted for a slump in attendance. The racing was uninteresting, most of the winners scoring in decisive fashion. Favorites fared fairly well, three of them accounting for purses. The defeats of McIvor, Cynosure and Azyiade were costly to the big bettors and constituted the main disappointments of the afternoon, Indifferent riding on the part of jockey Glass featured the racing. He had the mounts on Cynosure, McIvor, Bourbon Beau, Azyiade and Silver Knight. His efforts on the last-named pair were especially unsatisfactory. On Silver Knight he was astride much the best forse in the closing race, but he kept him a trailer until the stretch was reached, then tried hard, but was unable to overcome Intrinsic's lead. After the finish, M. Michaels, formerly a rider hereabouts, but now controlling a stable racing in South America. Bid up the winner to $1,000 and became her owner. She will be shipped with others to South America.

Princess Callaway proved herself a smart mud performer by taking the feature race in cantering stylefrom Kormak and Melton Street, Bourbon Beau linished a distant trailer.

The speedy quartet that composed the field in the fifth race were mediums of heavy speculation, Azyiade ran prominently for the first half mile, then succumbed readily to the much-improved Bachelor Girl. Lady Lightning came with a rush in the stretch to take second place from the favorite. Viley, by winning the opener, enabled W. L. Lewis to take his first purse of the season. He scored cantering after a display of high early speed. Tay Pay showed sudden improvement when he took the third race, with Melvor and Plutocrat trailing. Owner McManus is said to have made a big winning on Tay Pay.

Jockeys J. Deavenport and E. Martin were each suspended five days by the starter for disobedience at the post.

Jockeys J. Deavenport and E. Martin were each suspended five days by the starter for disobedience at the post.
John Hogan, formerly assistant to starter J. J. Holtman, arrived today from Chicago and distributed the condition books for the races to be held at Hawthorne track, Chicago, July 3 and 4, under the auspices of the National Letter Carriers' Association. The purses range from $250 to $700, and shipping expenses will be defrayed by those in charge of the racing. About seventy-five horses were listed this morning by Mr. Hogan to be shipped to Chicago to take part in the racing.
The speedy two-year-old filly, Calisse, was shipped to Texas this morning to be turned out until fall. It is thought that a respite from training will benefit her greatly and afford her an opportunity to develop.

Secretary E. W. Maginn wil leave for Buffalo tomorrow to assume his duties preliminary to the opening of the Fort Eric meeting next Saturday.
Lon Johnson and E. W. Heffner will ship seven horses to Fort Eric next Thursday. This will be the only shipment from here until after the close of the Latonia meeting.

WELL-KNOWN RACING OFFICIAL DEAD.

Col. Samuel Marshall Apperson, who was associated with Col. M. Lewis Clark in the stand at Washington Park, and who served as presiding judge at Hawthorne and Worth, died Saturday at his home in Johnson, Ark., after a lingering illness. He held a position under President Roosevelt's administration as an official assayer at the Philadelphia mint and for years was a prominent figure on southern and western tracks. For a time he resided in Kansas City during a venture in the brokerage business. He was a member of the Memphis Jockey Club and the Tennessee Club, and a close personal friend of Capt. J. H. Rees of Memphis. Two daughters who were educated at Waterman Hall at Monmouth, Ill., survive him.

Col. Matt J. Winn, general manager of the tracks at Juarez, Louisville and Yonkers, is in New York on a brief visit, He declares that Juarez will have a big meeting next winter.

O. A. Bianchi, better known as Daggie Smith, and Tom McDowell had a talk after The Manager beat Presumption at Latonia Saturday. Said Mr. Bianchi: "You think you have a fast breaker, Wéll, I left a celt at home that I will send for if you will bet $5,000, the race to be from the eighth pole home," He referred to the colt Oakland, by Bearcatcher-Lavena C., which has an unbeaten record of four firsts. Oakland was thrown out of training for the summer, as he is a small colt and had carried big weights, and Mr. Bianchi wanted to give him a chance to develop.

LAGOON INFORMATION STILL WITHHELD.

Salt Lake City, Utah, June 26.—The Lagoon Fair and Racing Association today continued its embargo on the odds against the winners of races at the Lagoon track, refusing to permit any official prices to be sent out in the form charts. It was also decided to continue to withhold the odds against Saturday's winners. The move, it is understood, is Saturday's winners. The move, it is the directed against handbooks in the east,

BUTWELL SUCCESSFUL IN RUSSIA.

New York, June 26.—One of the latest American ckeys to score a pronounced success on foreign jockeys to score a pronounced success on foreign courses is James Butwell, who rode with success for James R. Keene in this country. Butwell is now in the employ of Count Lazareff, who races probably the best stable in Russia. He was engaged at the suggestion of S. S. Howland, and out of the first eighteen races that he rode abroad he lost only three.

eighteen races that he rode abroad he lost only three.

A recent winning ride was in the Warsaw Derby. Besides this rich stake he has won the Empress Prize and the Produce Stakes, two of the rich Russian fixtures. In the running of the Empress Prize a peculiar ruiling was made after Butwell had won with the Lazareff starter. The stewards decided that the pace had been too slow for the first verst and it was called no contest, making it necessary to run it over again. This was not the only time that Butwell came under the displeasure of the stewards, and for one offense he was threatened with a suspension of his license for fifteen days. The ruling would doubtless have been made had it not been for the influence of his employer, who is a steward of the Jockey Club. Butwell had been fined 100 rubles for "bothering" another rider in a race at Warsaw on the second day of the meeting. Later when he was carried into the fence in a race he took the law into his own hands, and after dismounting proceeded to whip the offender in real American style. It was for this offense that the suspension was threatened, but he escaped by paying a fine of 300 rubles.

Of the American jockeys still in Russia Joe Pig-

300 rubles. Of the American jockeys still in Russia Joe Piggott, who several years ago rode for Edward Corrigan, when the master of Hawthorne raced one of the best stables in the west, is riding in trotting races. Jockey Hoar has been riding successfully for several seasons, and the services of Joe Richards are still in great demand on the Russian tracks. Helnie Homer, an American who was riding in Russia, has gone to Paris, where there are more frequent opportunities.

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS.

Jockeys Hopkins and F. Jackson have earned posi-tions in the list of the thirty leading American jock-cys since its last publication, displacing C. Knight and G. Burns, J. Glass has advanced to third place and is pressing T. Rice closely for second honors, T. Koerner is still leading by a comfortable margin. ### AMERICAN TRAINING METHODS IN FRANCE.

The Vanderbilt thoroughbred establishment at Poissy, France, is the subject of exhaustive and entertaining comment by Hotspur in a late issue of London Sporting Life, extracts from which appear property the old buildings were ruthlessly pulled down, and in their place has arisen a splendid collection of large and lofty boxes, which have been constructed upon the most modern hygienle principles. There is an admirable covered ride, which extends the full circuit of the stables. It measures five laps to the mile. In order that he can take up his position at one end of the ride and observe what the boys are doing when trotting the horses round, the trainer has had cunningly devised mirrors placed in such a position that he can see exactly what is taking place on both sides of the stables at the same moment. "Mr. Vanderbilt has built blusself a protty house."

chierianing comment by Hotspur in a late issue of London Sporting Life, extracts from which appear below:

"In the way of general appointments and extraordinary minuteness of detail probably the most remarkable training establishment; in Europe is that continuous training establishment; in Europe is that is position at one end of the ride and observe what is position to the American capitalist, W. K. Yanderbili, who for the last season or two has been at the head of the list of winning owners in France. During a recent visit to that country I had the privilege of looking over Duke's place. It is intensely interesting because it is so entirely different to the training establishment. Thus, in our and a pleasantly compiled and in the sum to the training establishment. Thus, in our and a pleasantly compiled by a patrone. Thus, in Januing the details of the place and developing his theories Duke has practically had a free hand. Poissy was originally at race course. It was subsequently acquired by M. Camille Blanc, who built some boxes and used it as a training establishment. Eventually this was given up and when Mr. Vanderbilt it was subsequently acquired by M. Camille Blanc, who built some boxes and used it as a training establishment. Eventually this was given up and when Mr. Vanderbilt in the time test. The course, which is probably unique so far as the birthylace of St. Louis, who were plake trains is most charmingly situated on the banks of the Seine. It lies in a sort of cup or valley, surrounded by gently rising wooded hills, and Duke has been fortunate enough to secure an ideal training ground. When Mr. Vanderbilt bought the most reading provents are supplied to the preparation of trotters, He has house and the properation of trotters, He has an arrangement which is probably unique so far as the birthylace of St. Louis, who have seen the beautiful forest of St. Germain, whree there are some excellent gallops. However, nothing succeeds like success, and Duke can complacently reflect that his methods, quaint as they may seem to the uninitiated, have spelled nothing but business. Everything at Poissy has been done on a prodigal scale. The comfort of those employed in the place has been studied to an extent that would astonish even some of the most kindly considerate of owners in this country. George Platt, who formerly trained Prince Soltykoff's horses at Newmarket, is installed as head man. He has a most charming house, with an orchard which has recently been planted with scores of trees. An eloquent tribute, by the way to the generosity of Mr. Vanderbilt. There is a very pretty rustic cottage for the stable jockey, if he wishes to use it, and the accommodation for the boys is quite unique. The old maxim that 'cleanliness is next to godliness' is studiously observed. There is a huge bath for the boys, in which a dozen can bathe at the same time. A recreation room and a billiard table are also provided.
